

As an association executive this new ruling would be counter to our mission as a nonprofit association focused on educating its members. We rely on fax transmissions to communicate to our members in a cost effective manner about our educational programs and services. Please include wording that allows associations to use fax as a means to communicate with paid members.